Section 2. DISCLOSURE OF CRIMINAL CONVICTIONS FOR REGULATED POSITIONS AT GOHF Please read this information carefully.

Statement of non-discrimination

Gift of Happiness Foundation is committed to equal opportunity for all applicants including those with criminal convictions. Information about criminal convictions is requested to assist the selection process and will be taken into account only when the conviction is considered relevant to the role. Any disclosure will be seen in the context of the criteria for the role, the nature of the offence and the responsibility for the care of existing volunteers and employees.

Advice to applicants

You have applied for a role that is a regulated activity position as defined by the safeguarding vulnerable groups UK order 2007. Therefore, all convictions including spent convictions must be disclosed. The disclosure of a criminal record or other information will not debar you from joining our team of volunteers unless Gift of Happiness Foundation considers that the conviction renders you unsuitable. In making this decision the Gift of Happiness Foundation will consider the nature of the offence, how long ago it was committed and what age you were at the time and other factors which may be relevant. This information will be verified through an appropriate access enhanced disclosure check. If you have received a formal caution or are currently facing prosecution for a criminal offence you should also bring this to our attention.

Please complete the remainder of this form as accurately as possible and return your signed application by PDF File or post to Gift of Happiness Foundation registered office. An arrangement will be made with you to discuss any clarification if required.

Thank you for your co-operation.
